GRF Supervisor Jeff Freedman
Receives Certification as a Fraud Examiner

Bethesda, MD, July 16, 2010 – Jeff Freedman, a Supervisor in the Audit Department of Gelman, Rosenberg & Freedman, CPAs, has completed the necessary requirements to become a Certified Fraud Examiner.

The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners is the world's largest anti-fraud organization, and those who meet the knowledge, education, and ethical requirements to obtain the CFE designation are recognized as experts in the field. Fraud is a growing concern for all organizations, large and small, and Certified Fraud Examiners are trained to detect and prevent it.

Mr. Freedman has over 10 years of experience in auditing and accounting. Prior to joining the firm, he received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Tampa. He supervises the audits of many of the firm's large nonprofit clients and has traveled to field offices around the world.

"I look forward to using my expertise as one more way we can serve our clients better," said Mr. Freedman.
