For Immediate Release

GRF to hold three presentations on the new Form 990

Bethesda, MD, August 28, 2008 – Gelman, Rosenberg & Freedman, CPAs will be hosting three complimentary presentations this fall regarding the new requirements of Federal Form 990, Federal Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax. Presentations will be held on September 11, October 14, and November 19 in Maryland, Virginia and Washington, DC, respectively.

The new Form 990, called by some “the biggest thing the IRS has done in the last 20 years,” will significantly increase the transparency of tax-exempt organizations and include much more information on internal governance and executive compensation.

The presentations will be led by GRF Nonprofit Tax Principals Stephen J. Kelin, CPA, JD, and Richard J. Locastro, CPA, JD. They will present information and direct discussion on the new requirements and instructions (which run over 300 pages).

To register for one of the FREE presentations, please visit www.grfcpa.com/events.html or call Elizabeth Paris, Marketing Coordinator, at 301-664-8578:
