GRF 25th Anniversary Retrospective Posted On-Line

BETHESDA, MD, July 2006. “We’re 25 years old this year...but our roots go back even further than that,” recalls Gelman, Rosenberg, and Freedman, CPA founder Michael Gelman as he reflects on the past 25 years that the firm has been in business.

In honor of the firm’s silver anniversary (1981-2006), GRF has posted a retrospective on-line, told through the perspective of Mr. Gelman, who shares his thoughts about how a small accounting practice developed over the years to become a successful mid-sized firm in the Washington metropolitan region. Although building an accounting practice has had its shares of ups and downs, GRF’s continued growth reflects the firm’s long-term achievements. Bethesda, MD-based Gelman, Rosenberg & Freedman, CPAs (www.grfcpa.com) has been part of the Washington, DC metropolitan community for 25 years. The firm provides accounting, auditing and consulting services to an extensive client base of nonprofit organizations, for-profit corporations including government contractors, research and development firms, retail businesses, professional service firms, partnerships, trusts, and individual clients. GRF is a full-service large local accounting firm with national and international affiliations.
